Statement on Mr. Ernest Suttles Arraignment

This morning, Mr. Suttles entered a plea of not guilty with his attorney Blake Ballin. Mr. Suttles has been ordered to stay away from the victim in this case, as well as wear an ankle bracelet. He will comply with both of the judge's orders.

While Mr. Suttles has been removed from the University of Memphis football team, he is more worried about being unable to continue his education in the U of M's Graduate School MBA program.

Mr. Suttles continues to deny any accusation of rape. He will return to court on December 5th. Ballin, Ballin & Fishman will have no further comment on this case at this time.
